Your Excellency's unwearied Attention to every poſſible Means of relieving the Province in the preſent Diſtreſs, claims our moſt grateful Acknowledgments. As we ſhare with Your Excellency, in a deep Concern, at the Occaſion of meeting now in General Aſſembly, ſo it is our earneſt Deſire to give Your Excellency that Aſſiſtance you expect from the calling us together. And we beg Leave to aſſure Your Excellency, that we will conſider with Conſideration, the Matters which Your Excellency is pleaſed to recommend to us, for His Majeſty's Service, and the Public Good and Welfare of the Province.

By Order of the Houſe,

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſq; Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, and Vice-Admiral in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

The humble ADDRESS of the Aſſembly of the Province.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Aſſembly of this Province, beg Leave to return our ſincere and hearty Thanks for Your Excellency's Speech delivered us on Yeſterday in General Aſſembly.

The Diſtreſſes which are but too feelingly felt in this Province by the late dreadful Hurricane, and of which we in the moſt ſincere Manner expreſs our Concern to Your Excellency, are in themſelves Reaſons ſufficient to point out the Neceſſity of this meeting of the General Aſſembly, on this melancholy Occaſion. And Your Excellency's early Care in calling us together at this Seaſon, is ſtrong Inſtance of Your Excellency's true Regard for the Intereſt of His Majeſty, and the Welfare and Proſperity of His Subjects under your Government.

The ſeveral Matters contained in Your Excellency's Speech, juſtly merit our moſt ſpeedy Conſideration: And we do aſſure Your Excellency, that we ſhall have that preſent Regard for them that the Circumſtances of this Province will admit.

In the Houſe of Aſſembly, the 28th Day of Sept. 1752.

By Order of the Houſe,

On his declaring to his worſhip, that he had the laſt night from Capt. Shaw's wife, and that he had often been there in Capt. Shaw's abſence, orders were given for apprehending the Captain, who was then ſecreted in the Briſtol merchant, of this port, bound to Carolina; but by contrary winds was forced back again into king-road, where he arrived on Tueſday morning about 8 o'clock and came to town. At tolzey-time he was brought before the mayor, and not being able to give a ſatisfactory account how came by the ſaid, he was committed to bridewell for further examination. The [illegible] nelian ſeal, ſet in gold, was found upon him, belonging to Gabriel Gurney, an eminent merchant of this city, who was robbed in a poſt-chaiſe laſt October, beyond Keyſham, in the road to Briſtol, by a highwayman. As Capt. Shaw always bore a fair character, 'tis expected he will clear himſelf to the ſatisfaction of his fellow citizens.

Hague, June 25. The principality of East Friesland, which now occasions such a warm dispute between his majesty and the King of Prussia, lies in the north part of Germany, bordering upon Groningen, a province of the United Netherlands. It was formerly a sovereign state, under the protection of the States, but upon the death of the last prince, the King of Prussia took possession of it, tho' the Dutch also claimed it. Embden is the capital city, to which his Prussian majesty has lately granted so many privileges and immunities, in order to extend its commerce, and make trade flourish in his dominions.

Kingston, in Jamaica, July 18. By letters from Curacoa, dated the 15th of May 1752, there is advice, that a Dutch trader from thence met a Spanish privateer from St. Domingo, at Porto-Rico, and after engaging with her for some time she sunk the Spanish privateer, who carried 14 carriage guns, 24 swivels, and 90 men, most part of the Spaniards were drowned; the Dutch trader had 14 carriage guns and 12 swivels.

HALIFAX, in Nova-Scotia, August 1. On sunday last his excellency Governor Hobson arrived here, in his majesty's ship Jason, of 40 guns, and on monday his excellency landed under the discharge of the cannon from on board the ships in the harbour, and from the parade; his excellency was received on the beach, by a number of the gentlemen of the army and other gentlemen, who waited on him to the governor's house, where he was handsomely received.

Boston, August 10. Thursday last came to town by land from Canada, Thomas Stannard, who gives us the following account, viz. That about 15 months ago, he (with several others) was taken captive by the Indians, when they attack'd the new-settled town of Dartmouth, opposite to Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, and carried captives to Canada; and that he, with seven others, taken at times and places, was recovered out of the hands of the French, by Capt. Stevens, who was sent to Canada by this government last winter, to redeem as many of our unhappy countrymen from their captivity as he could.---That they travelled by land from Canada, to Deerfield in this province, where they separated, in order to go to their respective places of abode.---That they left Mr. Nathaniel Wheelwright, of this town (who accompanied Capt. Stevens in his tedious journey to Canada) at Albany, who may soon be expected here.

Our informer, who is a very intelligent person, further says, that provisions are exceeding scarce in Canada, and that the people are under terrible apprehensions of a famine, there having been little or no rain for ten months past; but contradicts the story from Piscataqua, published in all the news-papers in town, except one, of a sickness amongst the inhabitants, a great mortality amongst the cattle, and that the Governor kept his house double guarded, for fear of the people, &c. On the contrary, he says, that he was in Quebec all the time of his captivity, with full liberty to go wherever he had occasion, and he never heard of any sickness among the people, or mortality among the cattle; that he never heard any complaint against the Governor, who kept only one centinel at his door, which is the custom of all their Governors.

New-York, August 17. By Capt. Tudor, who arriv'd here last week from Anguilla, we have advice, that the French guarda costa's were cruising very thick about Guadaloup and Grandterre, and on pretence of preventing any assistance to a gang of rebellious negroes, attack all the English vessels they meet: That one Capt. Bass, being chased by two of them, he fought his way through, and got off with his mast wounded, and the wyth of his topping-lift shot away: And that Capt Simmons, in a schooner belonging to St. Eustatia, was drove ashore by one of them, a sloop of 10 guns, when the men escap'd, but the schooner was got off again, and carried away by the enemy.

Yesterday arriv'd here Capt. Seamour from Curacoa, by whom we learn that the rumour of that place being about to be attack'd, is not true.

Boston, August 24. A private letter from a gentleman in London, by Capt. Brown, mentions, that his excellency governor Shirley might be expected at his government here some time in the fall.

Last week a person died of the small-pox, which was the last that had that distemper in this town.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 9.

On wednesday last arrived here the ship Live-Oak, of this port, Capt. Rodger, from London: He was on the coast the 30th ult. when the last Hurricane happened, and in it lost his best-bower anchor and mizen yard, had some of his sails torn in pieces, shipped several seas, and received other damage. The day he came in, he saw a snow off this bar, that had only her main-mast standing.
